Description

Elegant pair of wrought iron radiator covers, dating from the 1930s-1950s. Each piece features refined ironwork with stylized plant motifs, enhanced with decorative gilded brass elements. The symmetrical and airy design allows good air circulation while adding a strong decorative touch to the whole. The gray-veined white marble tops provide a noble and contrasting finish, ideal for an entrance, a hallway or a characterful living room. Rare and decorative pieces, which can be used as wall consoles or diverted according to your desires.
