Victor Fassin Belgian School Drawing Representing A Woman Original Frame

280 EUR

Signature : Victor Fassin (1826-1906)

Period : 19th century

Condition : En l'etat

Material : Paper

Description

Victor Fassin, born on August 19, 1826 in Liège, where he died on December 1, 1906, was a Belgian painter. He was also a professor at the Royal Academy of Fine Arts in Liège from 1883 to 1893. Trained by Barthélemy Vieillevoye and Auguste Chauvin at the Academy of Fine Arts in Liège (1842-1851), he stayed in Paris, then in Rome (1855-1860) thanks to a scholarship from the Lambert Darchis Foundation. He was also a drawing teacher in the young ladies' class at the Royal Academy of Fine Arts in Liège from 1883 to 1893. He died in Liège on December 1, 1906. Portrait of a woman with a pensive gaze. Original frame. Label by Soiron, framer in Liège. Frame dimensions: 43.2 x 50.5 cm

Dealer

Le Cabinet de Mercure

Antiquaires généralistes

Mobile : 0685611842

7, place Dauphine

Rabastens 81800