Description

A white and turquoise porcelain centerpiece with Sèvres biscuit sculptures in the Louis XV style, on three levels. The base is scallop-shaped with a floral and gilded border decoration. Three biscuit sculptures in the round of children seated on the edges. Supporting the central column, each child holds a lamb, doves, or a cat in their hands. The second and third trays are slightly openwork with a pretty floral decoration. On top of the centerpiece rests a biscuit sculpture of a child wearing a hat. Pouring liquid from a flask. A lovely set that could decorate a beautiful festive table. In perfect condition. Dimensions: H: 57 cm / Dia: 42 cm
