Description

Description: Cast iron, 24k gold gilding. This elegant grille is typical of the era of Violet leDuc, who among other things participated in a renaissance of the Gothic style. We will think of the castle of Pierrefonds. The design is a set of berries and flowers linked together. A gold leaf gilding has been redone, with a discreet patina. It is a real estate accessory very easy aesthetically to reuse in a place. Each side have decoration , so , it can be seen on two sides .Condition: Excellent condition, two cracks without lack or fragility and invisible.
