Description

Rare original Sèvres porcelain plate, c.1785, featuring beautifully hand-painted bouquets of garden flowers in vibrant enamel colors. The plate's crisply modelled basketweave ("corbeille") border and harmonious composition reflect the exceptional standards of Sèvres during the Louis XVI period. On the reverse, the Sèvres factory mark authenticates this plate as an original work of the late 18th century. A small hole to the back was intentionally made for wall display--an elegant tradition for Sèvres plates in refined interiors.
