more or less complicated depending on the workshop. The Abadeh are knotted in the city bearing the same name, they are very resistant. Our model with its learned decoration has retained all its freshness of color and the beauty of its wool. Six bands of bouquets like trees of life are placed in vases. The colors are frank and fresh, for an applied and fine decoration placed on an ivory background. This type of carpet exudes a perfect harmony, the wool used is soft, silky and shiny. This piece has always been wonderfully well maintained which has allowed the velvet to remain in a very beautiful condition. These are carpets with very resistant tight knotting, recommended for the great passage. The Afsharis create a carpet very closely resembling the Abadeh. but the way is more tribal, more rustic, more instinctive in a less fine wool therefore thicker. The decoration plays perfectly with the contrast of its bright colors on an ivory field. Abadeh is a city in the province of Fars in Iran with about 60,000 inhabitants. It is located at an altitude of two thousand meters, in a fertile plain. They are positioned on the road between Esfahan and Shiraz, 225 km from the former and 275 km from the latter. This city, located 638 km south of Tehran, is known for its high-quality carpets throughout the world.
