

---

Antique Delft Blue And White Rectangular Tea Caddy, Netherlands, C.1760-1780

700 EUR

Signature : Delft

Period : 18th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Ceramic

Description

An authentic Dutch Delft faience tea caddy of rectangular form with chamfered (beveled) shoulders, hand-painted in cobalt blue with chinoiserie scenes of figures, birds, and flowering branches to each side. The original domed lid is present and similarly decorated. All details are well-preserved, with strong color and a delicate craquelure typical of 18th-century Delftware.

The underside bears an overglaze blue painter's monogram "A", a type closely associated with the De Porceleyn Byl factory. Structure, glaze, and overall appearance are consistent with genuine Delft faience of the late 18th century. A highly collectible and rare tea caddy, representing the finest tradition of Dutch chinoiserie ceramics. Condition: Very good for

Dealer

Gillers Antiques

Specialists in 19th-century European silverware, porcelain and décor

Mobile : +44 7738009924

Buntingford SG9 0PY

the age. Minor glaze chips to the rim, some small chips and wear to the base corners, fine glaze craquelure throughout. The original cover has a faint internal hairline and a few tiny chips, barely visible when displayed. Dimensions: Height 14 cm, width 7.3 cm, depth 5.8 cm. Please study the accompanying photographs carefully as they form an integral part of this description. If you have any questions, we will be happy to answer them. The item will be shipped with full tracking and insurance