Description

Italy / 1960 / coffee table / travertine /

Mid-century / VintageA sleek, sturdy and artfully geometric travertine coffee table, crafted in the 1960s in Italy. The geometric base balances form and function, providing both support and a striking aesthetic. This rectangular coffee table is entirely crafted from travertine, a natural stone renowned for its warm, calming appearance. The minimalist design and solid form give the piece a sculptural and timeless quality. The top with bevelled edges emphasize the architectural character of this table. Ideal for lovers of modernist design, brutalist interiors or Japanese style. Pure simplicity with timeless elegance. This table serves as a perfect centerpiece for your living room, a practical addition to your office, or a charming accent in your entryway.
