Description

Elegant Art Nouveau vase by Kralik, circa 1900-1910, in iridescent glass in rich shades of pink, raspberry, orange, and gold. The shape is slender and waisted, with a flared mouth with ripples and folds. The glass features a raised "Martelé" pattern across its entire surface, with irregular motifs evoking a hammered or cellular texture. The iridescence offers beautiful color shifts depending on the light, ranging from pink and raspberry to orange, with golden and bluish highlights. In perfect condition. Height: 22 cm Maximum width: 11 cm Translated with DeepL.com (free version)
