

Miniature Figure - Napoleon Triptych - Bones

900 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Bone

Height : 20 cm

Description

Deer Horn Sculpture - Napoleon Opening with Carved Battle Scene - Europe, 19th Century Rare and unusual carved bone sculpture depicting Napoleon standing on a blackened wooden base with a brass rim. The figure is finely depicted in a solemn posture, dressed in a detailed costume, with ornate tricorne, epaulettes and sabre. Description The piece opens at the bust, revealing an interior carved in bas-relief, illustrating a military scene: horsemen, soldiers, cannons and complex narrative elements. Each interior door also features a small carved scene. The detailed work and the depth of the engraving testify to remarkable know-how. Material: Bone (sculpture) and wood (base) Origin: France Period: 19th century Height: 20 cm Condition: Good general condition - original patina, some natural

Dealer

Le sanctuaire des curiosités

Religious Arts - Curiosities - Works of Art - Haute Epoque

Mobile : +32470300329

1 Impasse de la rue des moulins

Tournai 7500

cracks in the material, nothing abnormal for its age
Special feature: Opening sculpture with interior narrative scene - rare
Object of curiosity and collection, mixing popular, military and decorative art, ideal for collectors of sculpted, military or atypical objects.
Do not hesitate to contact me for any additional information or request for additional photos concerning the objects offered for sale.