Description

Beautiful pair of Maison Baguès wall sconces, adorned with their iconic flower and leaf motif. This pair was made in the 1950s in Paris. The "drip effect" candles on the bulb socket can be replaced with cardboard candles. The choice is yours. We have had these lights gently cleaned and rewired. Like all our lights, they simply require standard LED bulbs, like those you would use in a new lamp. We actively source Maison Baguès pieces and can supply chandeliers and table lamps to complement these lights. See our website for our current pieces or contact us. Luxury Antique Lighting. Since the 1860s, the renowned French luxury lighting workshop Maison Baguès has been producing pieces that are highly sought after worldwide. Each piece is assembled by hand using traditional techniques.
