Description

Fox on the lookout Bronze with brown patina signed Francisque (20th century) on the base and marked "gold medal". The fox is depicted in a lookout position, body hunched and head lowered, focused on its prey. The model reveals careful chiseling work, particularly visible in the rendering of the fur and the bushy tail which follows the line of the body. Inscription "RH 241" inside the bronze. Circa 1900-1920. L. 44 cm H.31 cm
