Description

Very beautiful Louis XIV style armchair in waxed walnut. It rests on four console legs, the two front ones are finished with an acanthus leaf. The four legs are connected to each other by an H-shaped crotch turned into a baluster surmounting four ball feet. The acotoirs as well as the supports are very animated and also decorated with a beautiful acanthus work. The backs are high and flat, They are inclined towards the outside. The seat has just been redone, it is therefore firm and very comfortable, the covering fabric is new. The whole is decorated with a studded finish.
