Description

French porcelain plate, Limoges or Paris, c.1860, decorated in the style of Sèvres. The center is beautifully hand-painted with a naturalistic bouquet of garden flowers, framed by a rich crimson border with elaborate gilded scrollwork and cartouches of floral reserves. The plate is finished with exceptional quality gilding, all in perfect condition. The decoration is executed in genuine baked paint, not cold enamel, ensuring durability and authenticity characteristic of high-quality mid-19th century French porcelain.

Marked on the reverse with an overglaze red stamp "DECORÉ A SEVRES." The presence of three neatly spaced stilt marks on the reverse is a clear sign of traditional kiln firing, characteristic
