

Multiple Reliquary In Gilded Brass - 19th Century

400 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Brass

Description

Multiple reliquary in gilded brass - 19th century - Belgium Authentic reliquary dating from the 19th century is a circular model in brass, with a glass protecting its contents. It presents four relics of saints, arranged in a fan around a golden damask background decorated with silver flowers. Description The handwritten labels in red ink, carefully wrapped around the relics, identify the saints from whom they come: St. Rochi Conf.S. Ludovici Regis S. Josephi Aleonisa S. Bernardi Abbatis Each relic is fixed to the bottom with silk threads, still intact, proof of their authenticity. On the back, the reliquary is sealed with a red wax seal bearing the ecclesiastical coat of arms of the prelate who authenticated these relics, with the handwritten inscription of the inventory number (no. 1575) and the name of the

Dealer

Le sanctuaire des curiosités

Religious Arts - Curiosities - Works of Art - Haute Epoque

Mobile : +32470300329

1 Impasse de la rue des moulins

Tournai 7500

prelate: Elenchi Abbatis, probably an abbreviation of his title. Dimensions: approximately 4.5 cm in diameter Condition: very good state of preservation - seal intact, no missing parts In accordance with canon law (can. 1190 §1), this sale concerns only the reliquary as an object of sacred art. The relics it contains are not the object of the transaction, but are included free of charge for their historical and cultural value. Do not hesitate to contact me for any additional information or request for additional photos concerning the objects offered for sale.