

Gilded Brass "teca" Reliquary - 19th Century Containing Three Sacred Relics

500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Brass

Description

Gilded brass "teca" reliquary - Containing two sacred relics, with intact ecclesiastical seal - 19th century - Belgium This circular "teca" reliquary in gilded brass, dating from the 19th century, presents an arrangement of two authentic relics fixed on a red fabric background, decorated with small rolled paper flowers (paperolle) and cut glass cabochons. Description The relics are identified by handwritten labels in ink: St. Theresa. S. John of the Cross (mystic and doctor of the Church) Each fragment is carefully mounted, protected under glass, in a floral composition typical of the reliquaries of popular piety of the 19th century. The back is sealed with a perfectly preserved red wax seal, still attached by the original silk threads, guaranteeing that the reliquary has never been opened. The

Dealer

Le sanctuaire des curiosités

Religious Arts - Curiosities - Works of Art - Haute Epoque

Mobile : +32470300329

1 Impasse de la rue des moulins

Tournai 7500

ecclesiastical seal bears an unidentified episcopal coat of arms but typical of the religious authorities authorized to authenticate relics. Dimensions: diameter approx. 3.5 cm Condition: very good, seal and relics intact In accordance with canon law (can. 1190 §1), this sale concerns only the reliquary as an object of sacred art. The relics it contains are not the object of the transaction, but are included free of charge for their historical and cultural value. Do not hesitate to contact me for any additional information or request for additional photos concerning the objects offered for sale.