

Franz Von Pausinger - Family Of Deer - Provenance Häringe Castle

6 900 EUR

Signature : Franz Xaver Von Pausinger

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Oil painting

Width : 99

Height : 130

Description

Franz Xaver von Pausinger, A Deer Family in Forest Clearing, 1876 which once hung in Häringe Castle. This luminous oil painting by Austrian master Franz von Pausinger captures the serene harmony of wildlife within a sunlit forest clearing. Bathed in the soft glow of morning light, a family of roe deer moves gracefully through the rich undergrowth, surrounded by towering trees and vibrant foliage. A pheasant takes flight nearby, adding a gentle sense of life and movement to the tranquil scene. With exquisite detail and a warm, natural palette, Pausinger creates a sanctuary of calm and beauty, inviting you to step into this peaceful scenery and experience a moment of timeless connection with nature. The soft textures of the forest floor, the layered greens of the foliage, and the graceful

Dealer

Arte-Fact Fine Art

Tableaux du 17ième au 19ième

Tel : 003233616981

Mobile : 003233616981

Aartselaar 2630

forms of the animals all combine to evoke a sense of quiet joy and balance.

Artist Biography: Franz Xaver von Pausinger (1839-1915) was a highly regarded Austrian painter and illustrator, renowned for his refined portrayals of animals and landscapes. Educated in Karlsruhe and Munich, he became one of the most respected wildlife artists of his time. His deep appreciation for the natural world earned him the title of court painter to Emperor Franz Joseph I. Pausinger's works are distinguished by their gentle elegance, attention to natural detail, and a quiet reverence for the beauty of the outdoors.

Medium and Dimensions: Oil on canvas, signed and dated 1876

Canvas dimensions: 110 by 81 cm (43.30 inches by 31.88 inches)

With frame: 130 by 99 cm (51.18 inches by 38.97 inches)

Provenance: Häringe Castle, Sweden.

Having adorned the walls of this grand home, it carries with it a legacy of taste, refinement, and cultural significance.

What makes this work truly unique: Deer Family in Forest Clearing is more than just a work of art; it is an invitation into a world of calm, elegance, and natural harmony.

Ideal for collectors, nature lovers, or those seeking a distinguished statement piece, this painting brings warmth and serenity into any setting. Its noble castle provenance enhances its uniqueness and appeal, making it a treasured addition to any fine art collection and interesting conversation piece. Whether hung in a contemporary home or a traditional space, this piece offers enduring beauty and a gentle reminder of the quiet wonders found in nature.