

Louis XVI Period Writing Table

28 000 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Length : 65

Height : 73,5

Depth : 32

Description

It opens with a belt drawer revealing a writing desk and three compartments. The Turquin marble top is surrounded by an openwork brass gallery. Below, cartouches highlighted by a frieze of pearls present scalloped and ribboned floral garlands. The table is supported by four legs in the form of tapered columns and joined by a spacer tablet. They are decorated with twisted olive branches and leafy connecting dice before ending with finely chiseled bronze sabots. Louis XVI period Restoration of use H.73.5 x W. 65 x D. 32 cm

Dealer

Galerie Pellat de Villedon

French furnitures of the 17th & 18th centuries

Mobile : 06 07 57 01 20

2 bis rue Carnot

Versailles 78000