

1564 - Lyon - Trial For Embezzlement, Church Of Saint Pierre Le Vieulx

190 EUR

Period : 16th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Parchment

Width : 32 environ

Height : 22,5

Description

Request executed by the seneschal of Lyon at the request of Sébastien Chambollay, canon and prebendary of the church of Saint-Pierre-le-Vieux in Lyon. He accuses Claude Boullioud, heir of Claude Boullioud (+), canon of the church of Saint-Just, of having illegitimately embezzled 20 livres tournois from the income of the said prebend. - We have not found any trace of the complainant. - - - The Boullioud family was influential in Lyon in the 16th century. A vault in the name of this family still existed in the church of Saint Pierre le Vieulx in the 17th century (). - Claude Boullioud, father of the accused, is cited () between 1515-20 as treasurer of the clergy's contribution for the maintenance of the ramparts, on behalf of François de Rohan 1480-1536, archbishop of Lyon. - Claude Boullioud, accused,

Dealer

Cabinet des curieux

Cabinet of Curiosities

Tel : 0144830957

Mobile : 0613747892

12 Passage Verdeau

Paris 75009

is cited as treasurer of the Saint Just church, and died in 1593 (*) - The Saint Pierre le Vieulx church damaged by the wars of religion was restored from 1583. It was destroyed in 1866. (See last photo of the slideshow) - The Saint Just church, an ancient basilica, was destroyed during the wars of religion, rebuilt from 1565. => This document illustrates the troubled situation, financial disorder following the takeover of the city in 1562-63 by the reformed.