

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

---

Lucky Charm Van Cleef And Arpels "the 3 Inseparables" Enameled In Styptor, Art Deco Charm

1 000 EUR

Signature : Van Cleef & Arpels

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Metal

Description

Lucky charm Van Cleef & Arpels "The 3 Inseparables" enameled charm pendant. This styptor lucky charm represents "The 3 Inseparables": a soldier, a hunchback, and a white horse. This enameled motif was inspired by the Parisian adage "on the Pont-Neuf, you will always meet a soldier, a white horse, and a hunchback*." This motif was first used on handbag clips, then as a brooch, and finally as a charm (in silver, styptor, and gold). VC&A Charm, 1933, France. Marked "DEPOSE VCA" on the reverse. This piece of jewelry was inspired by Renée Rachel and designed by René Sim Lacaze. Dimensions: 3 cm x 1.9 cm Note: See advertisements in photos. Condition: scratches on the reverse, lack of enamel on neck Weight: 1.68 gr* Anonymous, "Variétés", Journal de Toulouse

Dealer

Maison Mohs

Antique & Vintage jewelry

- sur rendez-vous -

Paris 75004

politique et littéraire, March 6, 1859, np This saying most certainly referred to the diversity of personalities who rubbed shoulders on the Pont-Neuf: "The Pont-Neuf was the general meeting place for strollers, [...] beggars, the rich, [...] cut-purses, [...] bourgeois, servants, pages, gentlemen, soldiers, monks, [...] women, [...] acrobats, acrobats..."