

Antique Miniature Portrait Of A Young Man - Circa 1830-1845

300 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Other

Length : 5.5 x 7 cm

Description

A superb hand-painted miniature portrait of a refined young gentleman, dated early 19th century (circa 1830-1845), presented in its original oval gilt-brass frame with protective domed glass and green felt-covered spine. Period: Circa 1830-1845. Dimensions: 5.5 x 7 cm. Frame: Oval gilt-brass frame, original hanging loop, prongs visible; green felt-covered spine. Condition: Good original condition with signs of wear expected for its age - visible crazing under the glass and light surface marks. Portrait Subject: This portrait depicts an elegant young gentleman, dressed in the fashion of the period: Dark jacket with a high collar. White shirt with a high collar. Richly colored decorative tie (gold and black tones). Handkerchief or gold detail visible in the breast pocket. The overall attire suggests a figure

Dealer

Art Classique

curiosités, art premier et Asiatique

Tel : email : aze@pandora.be

Mobile : 0032-475272534

Bilzen 3740

belonging to the cultivated or artistic bourgeoisie of the Romantic or Biedermeier period, typical of the liberal professions, artists or intellectuals of the 19th century.