Description

Oil painting depicting a boy wearing a hat, a precious stone, and a white ruff. The canvas painting beautifully captures the boy's face and expression, rich in chiaroscuro, typical of Flemish painting. The neutral, rather dark tones highlight the brim of the hat, an amber precious stone, and a white ruff collar, with a splendid trompe l'oeil effect that perfectly balances the overall effect. The boy's intense gaze captures and intrigues the viewer. Netherlands, 17th century 42cm x 32cm
