Description

Small table dressed in a beautiful mahogany burl veneer with a swivel top that unfolds to form a good-sized game board, covered with green felt surrounded by a leather braid decorated with a gold vignette. Under this top, a storage space is hidden. It is made up of compartments and holders for playing cards. This small piece of furniture has a large drawer in the belt also made up of compartments. It closes with an original lock in working order with a thread entry highlighting the passage of the key. This table is also characterized by its X-shaped legs joined by a moving spacer. These rest on casters for perfect mobility.Period: Early 19th centuryExcellent condition after restoration in our cabinetmaking workshop.Varnished finish.Delivery possible in France and
