Description

Ligron or Pontvallain, a money box to break with characteristics close to Ligron pottery. However, several potters worked in the village of Pontvallain and were in contact with other centers of Sarthe such as Ligron or Prevelles. The pieces preserved from the beginning of the 19th century and attributed with certainty to Pontvallain have a very rich enamel close to that of this money box.

Ligron or Pontvallain, it is difficult to decide without a more in-depth study. If you have any questions or clarifications to give me, I am at your disposal. _____
