Description

Pair of exotic wood armchairs with high backs, after the model by Giuseppe Scapinelli. Giuseppe Scapinelli (1911-1982) was an Italian designer, who settled in Brazil in the 1940s: a prolific designer, his work is distinguished by elegant forms and bold curves, often made of carved exotic wood. He designed refined furniture that combined functionality and sophistication, blending European aesthetics with Brazilian modernism, defining the style of Brazilian furniture of the 1950s and 1960s. Armchairs completely redone recently, wear to the varnish, seats and backs covered in a white upholsterer's fabricLate 20th centuryHeight 90cm - seat 44cm66 x 70cm approximately
