Description

Restoration period carafe in cut and gilded crystal with floral motifs and vine branches. Large gilded border under and inside the carnette. Large gilded fillet (approx. 5 mm) on the foot and the beveled edge. Due to the use of time, we barely notice a very light white powder at the bottom, almost invisible because it is set back from the curve of the carafe. Original stopper cut and gilded with flowers with the Gothic letter P in the center. Louis Philippe, Napoleon III period. Years 1845-1865. Perfect condition, no lack of gilding.
