Description

"Italian Landscape In Grisaille - 18th Century Oil On Wooden Panel" An artwork of great chromatic elegance. This stunning 18th-century oil painting on wooden panel, executed in grisaille technique, represents a magnificent example of Italian landscape art. The grisaille, renowned for its monochrome refinement, highlights each detail with depth and subtle light. Although rendered in black and white, the intensity of the brushwork and expert use of chiaroscuro make the scene dynamic and alive. Artistic technique and quality. Measuring 150 x 91 cm, this painting has been executed with remarkable skill. It has recently undergone professional cleaning, removing layers of smoke and bringing back its original tones. The wooden panel ensures stability, and the paint, despite its age, remains in
