Description

A pair of Directoire-style chairs with inverted, openwork, and carved backs. In very good condition, they rest on a tapered front base, a "Sabre" rear base. They are covered in genuine "horsehair" which presents small alterations more or less visible depending on the viewing angle. They are made of blond cherry wood and date from the first part of the 20th century. Seat height: 47 cm. We can change the cover for EUR80 including tax per chair. Delivery is possible in mainland France at a very reasonable price.
