Description

'Corpus Christi' or Christ in bronze by Alfred Daubrée (1850-1885) - Paris (France) - 19th century Christ in a very fine quality, marked 'Alfred Daubrée'. Daubrée was an eclectic master of bronze, active at a time when the taste of the patrons often played a decisive role. The crucifix fits perfectly into his religious style inspired by the Baroque, while being firmly anchored in the neoclassical tradition of the 19th century, marked by high-quality craftsmanship.
