Description

Interesting Italian chest of drawer in the manner of Maggiolini. Beautiful marquetry, the chest is on high feet making it quite high. Top veneered as well. The geometrical ornaments make it "moderne" for the time. Beautifully restored by professional hands. Size: H 90 cm x W 130 cm x D 63cm Italy, circa 1800. Lit: Giuseppe Maggiolini (Parabiago 1738 - 1814) was an Italian cabinetmaker, of the late Baroque and especially Neo-Classical current. Although he is historically remembered as 'Master of marquetry', it is more correct to define him as 'Master in cabinetmaking', since in marquetry other materials (such as ivory) are added to wood.
