Description

A rare and prestigious piece, this 1930s period desk embodies the expertise and refinement of French furniture from the interwar period. Made from high-quality veneer wood, it is distinguished by its rich ornamentation: finely chiseled gilt bronze applications, floral motifs, sculpted female figures and recessed red marble panels. The top features elegant patinated red leather bordered by bronze friezes, reinforcing the noble and functional character of this piece. The beveled base and balanced volumes make it a piece as decorative as it is utilitarian. EUR2,640.00 1 in stock
