

Art Deco Ceiling Chandelier In The Jean Perzel Style.

1 800 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Glass

Diameter : 60

Height : 97

Description

Round ceiling chandelier, in the style of the Jean Perzel company, with an inverted cyma recta molding (Cavet), painted sheet metal and solid brass. The center is covered with a sandblasted glass panel. Late Art Deco, circa 1940/1950. In very good condition, from a family home where it had never been installed. The original fabric cable wiring has been replaced with modern wiring (2 x 0.75 mm²), and it has been repainted in the same lacquered finish as the original (off-white/ecru). The chandelier was originally installed with its double chain; its initial configuration likely ended at the first ceiling rose. (The chain, which extends to the ceiling, is easily removable.) Height of chandelier alone: 60 cm; Height with chain: 97 cm x Diameter: 60 cm. You will find full-screen photos of this Art Deco ceiling light by clicking
