Description

Napoleon, return of Napoleon from the island of Elba in 1815, original period print, 19th century 83, 5 cm long 68 cm high for its period frame (average condition) very beautiful print of the return of Napoleon for the island unfortunately a too tight marie-louise prevents having more reading information Not wanting to demarcate the back gather remains up to the future buyer to do it to have a nice surprise or not Offered in its found juice Set remains generally in good condition.....Quite complicated for the photos because of the reflections of the glass (non-existent colors)
