Description

Charming fixed under polychrome glass dating from the end of the 19th century, illustrating an elegant scene of a walk in a vast wooded park in front of a neo-Renaissance style residence. We discover characters in bourgeois dress, a team of horses, a small stone bridge and a lively terrace, in a bucolic atmosphere typical of the Belle Époque. The work is a chromolithograph (or colored engraving) fixed under glass, with fresh and delicately preserved colors. It is presented in a very beautiful carved gilt wood frame decorated with floral scrolls.
