Description

Small poplar wood traveling chest (placed at the back of carriages) painted with tempera in shades of blue, white, and red. The painting, which extends across the entire surface of the chest, also features geometric motifs on the front, sides, and top. The sides feature hand-forged iron handles. The base is a shelf, while the top opens, allowing for storage. The chest is in good condition and would add a touch of class and antique appeal to any room. Tuscan manufacture, early 18th century.
