

Rectangular Sundial - France

500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Solid wood

Length : 2

Width : 7,5

Height : 4,5

Description

Rectangular sundial in wood and mounted paper, painted with ink and watercolor, opening with a hinge by a hook, the cover presenting on the outside a series of names of European cities with their latitude, on the inside a sundial with Arabic numerals, the lower part presenting the compass with a wind rose motif under glass, the Arabic and Roman numerals France, popular work from the beginning of the 19th century, following a model by Charles Bloud (1653-1699) 2 x 4.5 x 7.5 cm

Dealer

Area Antic

This strange idea of beauty

Tel : +33 145233152

32 rue de Paradis

Paris 75010