Canaux (?): Solid Silver Folding Travel Cutlery And Its Two-bladed Knife/penknife.

520 EUR

Signature : Canaux (?)

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Nacre

Length : 17,5 cm

Description

Superb and rare solid silver and mother-of-pearl travel cutlery set, including a fork, a spoon, and a double-bladed knife.The cutlery has a superb handle with very luminous and shimmering mother-of-pearl plates.The handles have an applied silver number: AB.The knife has two parallel blades, one steel, the other silver.The cutlery comes in a magnificent brown leather travel case. The cutlery fits perfectly, but the silver number on the case lid is different (CS for the case). The cup that was in the case is no longer there.The fork and spoon are hallmarked:. Minerva, 1st grade, before 1973 for 950/°° silver.. L & Cie silversmith's hallmark with an anvil. This is the same hallmark as Paul Canaux's, but with an L instead of the P.C. I haven't been able to identify it. It could be a family member, a

Dealer

Anxtique

Objets d'art du XVIIIe au XXe siècle, orfèvrerie et objets de vitrine

Tel : anxtique@gmail.com

Mobile : 0607711514

Fax : anxtique@gmail.com

Paris 75000

precursor, or a successor.The knife is hallmarked:. Minerva, 2nd grade for 800/°° silver. Silversmith's hallmark to be identified: DMagnificent travel cutlery set, very complete with its knife. The set is of excellent craftsmanship and extremely precious, with the magnificent mother-of-pearl handles.17.5 cm open9.9 cm closed17.9 cm open and 9.8 cm closed for the knifeVery good condition, minor scratches from use. The closure system of the case is broken. A small, but not serious, lateral play on the spoon and fork, but the springs remain very firm.Hand delivery in Paris or insured Colissimo shipping.France: EUR15Europe: EUR20Worldwide: EUR35