Description

Spectacular original Art Deco sideboard, restored, from France circa 1930. Walnut body, black piano lacquer in several layers, polished to a high gloss. On the doors, two large (36 x 18 cm) cast iron appliques, chiseled and chromed, representing a lion and a lioness. Both appliques are engraved with the acronym "BENNES". On the outside, two hinged doors with two compartments for bottles and glasses, held at the front by a thick stainless steel band. The interior is ash veneer and lacquered. In the center, two small doors with original blue glass handles, closed with tongues and grooves. In the center, a drawer with a chrome handle and inlaid bands on the front, beneath which are open compartments and a shelf with the same inlay on the front edge. The interior of the doors is ash veneer and glossy
