Description

Beautiful ewer in solid silver and cut crystal. The silver handle is openwork. The neck is decorated with a beautiful central shell surrounded by flowers and ribbons. The base of the body covers the crystal with an openwork silver watch. The polylobed foot is decorated with a grid topped with leaves. The cut crystal is of very good quality, it is very thick and very transparent (perhaps the Baccarat house). The interior of the neck is in vermeil. The ewer is in perfect condition. No loss, no restoration. Silversmith: Edmond Tétard in Paris. Work from 1880 to 1903. Gross weight: 1kg 730. Minerva hallmark, 1st title (950/1000): on the neck, the foot, the handle, the lid.
