

18th Century Louis XV Period Walnut Commode

3 900 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Walnut

Width : 127

Height : 99

Depth : 57

Description

Charming 18th Century Louis XV Period Walnut Crossbow Commode This mid-18th-century walnut French provincial chest of drawers from the Louis XV period is a stunning piece. It features three levels and has a rectangular, shaped molded, serpentine overhanging top above three long, molded drawers. The drawer fronts are beautifully characterized by hand-carved relief outlines, adding to its charm. The ornate foliate brass hardware is original, ensuring smooth operation for each drawer. The piece is finished with a shaped apron and showcases a rich, warm patina that enhances its historical appeal. This 18th-century chest of drawers, referred to as "in crossbow", features drawer fronts decorated with scalloped cartridges and rounded anterior uprights, the sides with panelling, all raised upon

Dealer

Anthony Short Antiques

18C & 19C Fine Period Antiques, Decorative Furniture & Works of Art

Tel : 00 44 7595603348

Mobile : 00 44 7595603348

Market Square

Petworth GU28 0AH

cabriole scrolled feet. It retains its period brass handles and keyholes, complete with working locks and a key. Originating from Provence, this chest of drawers beautifully captures the craftsmanship of the 18th century.