Description

Louis XVI period barber's table in solid walnut, the fillets are green and sycamore, the corners are lemon tree. (h55cm) the outgoing tray includes the same fillet with a burr walnut motif in the center, and on each side a mahogany grain wood. The turned sheathed legs are inspired by Jacobs. The marble is Carrara, it is framed on a cut side (68cm by 36 cm). The mirror is on a strong molding. The bronze shoes also include casters. This men's dressing table is rare, especially in its proportions, it is four-sided. Delivery possible not included in the price.
