Description

Large oil on canvas, nearly 1 meter high. It is titled "Houses on the Isle of Yeu", an island in the Vendée region famous for its white fishermen's houses and picturesque fishing port. The work shows us the port from the sea. The lower half is occupied by a large reflection on the water, which makes the work very bright and gives the measure of the boats and buildings facing the ocean. Next come several boats and trawlers, some of which are brightened by patches of bright colors. Above, here are the white houses with tiled roofs so characteristic of the Isle of Yeu. Smoke escapes from a tall chimney. The work is signed lower right. It is in excellent condition. Its title is written on the back, on the stretcher. The work is offered unframed, as befits modern works. This work was created by
