Description

A set of two antique engravings depicting maritime scenes: one of Sardine Fishing, the other illustrating boats stranded on a beach. Both plates bear the monogram EBY, probably that of a 19th-century artist. One of the engravings is also signed Berthelemy sculp. Printed in Paris by Delâtre, a famous printer from rue Saint-Jacques, active in the 19th century and known for his collaboration with artists of the Barbizon school. The engravings are printed on watermarked laid paper from Papeteries d'Annonay, a guarantee of quality and an old print. Note: although the monogram EBY corresponds to that of Kerr Eby (1889-1946), this cannot be the artist here, as the engravings predate his period of activity. The exact attribution remains to be identified. Details: Artist: Monogram EBY (unidentified) Engraver:
