Description

Original color print by Leonor Fini, hand-signed in pencil by the artist on the lower right, accompanied by the handwritten dedication "Pour Serge". Unnumbered work, which is common for artist's proofs or personal gifts made by Leonor Fini in the 1960s-70s. This composition represents two female figures, in a dreamlike, soft and mysterious atmosphere, characteristic of the artist's symbolic universe. The figures are wearing a turban in a dreamlike atmosphere. This theme of feminine duality, sisterhood or identity is recurrent in the work of Leonor Fini. This print on dedicated vellum paper gives the work an intimate character. Presented in a molded wooden frame under glass with a beige mat. Very good general condition. 20th century Frame: H 77.5 cm - W 64 cm - D 2.5 cm Paper: H 46.5 cm - W 60
