Description

This exquisite equestrian sculpture depicting Napoleon on horseback dates back to the first half of the 19th century and is of French origin. Crafted from biscuit porcelain, it features a cobalt blue porcelain base. The work captures the tension of the moment with great dynamism and mastery: the horse, reared on its hind legs, conveys a sense of power and movement, while Napoleon confidently grips his sword and maintains a composed and noble pose. The finely crafted porcelain enhances every detail, from the folds of the uniform to the horse's harness. Period: First half of the 19th century; Origin: France; Dimensions: Height 73 cm; Width 41 cm; Condition: Excellent; Document: Certificate of authenticity; Support: We are at your disposal for further clarifications, information, and
