Description

Antique patinated bronze sculpture depicting the bust of a young girl signed "Houdon," resting on a gilded bronze base. The bust depicts a young girl with a serene, slightly smiling expression. Her face is turned slightly to the right, suggesting a sense of sweetness and childlike poise. The base is particularly elaborate, richly chiseled with gilded motifs in the form of curls and scrolls, contrasting with the dark bronze of the bust. On the back, you can see the artist's signature, "Houdon," and the streets where the foundries once stood. Condition: Excellent. Origin: 19th century France. Dimensions: 25 x 25 cm, H 50 cm. Document: Certificate of Authenticity. Assistance: We are at your disposal for further clarification or photographic details. Shipping: Throughout Italy, Europe, and
