Description

Good Quality French Riviera Bamboo & Rattan Reclining Chaise Longue Sun Lounger This early 20th-century French Riviera bamboo and rattan reclining chaise longue sun lounger is a stunning example of French design. The piece features a bamboo structure with a braided wicker back and seat, accented by a striking red outline, along with a matching pull-out footstool. The chaise longue boasts a bamboo reclining frame with hand-woven herringbone rattan on the seat, back, and arms, combining elegance with comfort. Manufactured in the South of France during the 1900s, it showcases beautiful details, perfect proportions, and is robust, remaining in very good condition. A famous design from the early 20th century, this chaise longue would be a perfect addition to your terrace, garden, or poolside area!
