Description
-------------

Beautiful and large painting (see photo on the game card) of a composition in an opalescent vase of flowers from the fields and the summer garden, this remarkable oil on canvas, frame with reinforced angles, very well framed in a large and generous frame in gilded wood carved with scrolls, acanthus leaves, foliage, richly argued and well protruding from an original gilding patinated by time. This very expressive painting, even impulsive, is very mastered with rich colors and "removed" material, a certain modernism in this Impressionist Work where the eye is completely to find its bearings for an admiration in front of so much virtuosity. Well composed this painting enhanced by a very beautiful opulent frame, from the middle of the 19th century, end of Napoleon III; or less "Academic" painting
