Description

Enhance your bathroom with this unique art deco piece of furniture. From the 1930s, it is made of mahogany wood and is in very good condition. Completely renovated in our workshop, it is ready to be installed. It is composed of a curved lower part with a series of drawers, a large arched door and on the right side partially hidden, glass shelves and small brass bars for hanging small towels. The top is in red marble with a black basin (new) and a brass faucet (new). In the upper part, a mirror framed by brass racks allows you to adjust a shelf to your liking. The mirror is original so it has small imperfections (it is easily replaceable if you wish). Its dimensions in cm: length 90 depth from. 35 to 54 height 200 (bottom 83)
