Description

Pair of "Colonial chair" armchairs in mahogany and original black leather with a beautiful patina. Elegance and quality of execution characterize the design of Ole Wanscher, considered one of the greatest names in Danish design. These armchairs are inspired by classic English furniture of the 18th century. "Colonial Chair" is a major piece of design. Its solid mahogany structure, a caned seat in perfect condition upholstered with thick leather cushions give it the particularity of a light and very comfortable structure. These armchairs are in very good condition. From an old edition, their structure bears the metal pastilles of the publisher Poul Jeppesen and the Danish label.
